Plans for Defense of Empire,

ST. PETERSBURG, May 22.-The first step towards the institution of the long contemplated council of national defense to co-ordinate the activities of the military and naval administrations, has been taker in an imperial manifesto creating a special preliminary commission under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholase Nicholase

The manifesto is preceded by a rescript which Emperor Nicholas has addressed to permit the Japanese newspapers to publish the grand duke, in which his majesty says: these statements, fearing that the effect will In order to insure the development of the empire's fighting force in a manner corresponding to the needs and resources of the state and uniformity of the duties of the naval and military administration and to harmonize them with those of the other government institutions in questions affecting the safety of the state, I have deemed it necessary to establish a permanent state defense council. I charge the special commission, consisting of members appointed by me under the presidency of our imperial highness, to draw up according to my direct suggestion a law relating to this institution.

The rescript concludes with the expression on February 2. In the battle of Halkoutnat, seer. The demands were rejected. The dispatch of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholalevitch, who is designated as the president of the permanent sume direct command of the imperial forces there, has been several times seriously considered, and he has served repeatedly of late as representative of the emperor on commissions dealing with vital questions of the war.

Abolishes Old Council.

The existing council of war, which has proved unsatisfactory, will be superseded by the new body. The step is an extremely important one, for which the events of the war in the far east have shown the necessity, the two departments falling to work together to the best advantage, even when actuated by the most harmonious feelings, and friction has been often manifested. sire to spare the Russian officers all anx-Many opportunities for helpful co-operation between the two arms of the service are constantly arising, and if Vice Admiral Rojestvensky succeeds in reaching Vladivostok and shaking the Japanese mastery of the sea the council will play a very weighty role. At the same time the council is created not for the present war, but as a permanent organism of the state, subordinating the War and Navy departments and even overshadowing the other ministries. It is understood the formation of the new council means the definite abandon the plan of sending Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholalevitch to the far east to assume supreme command on land and sea. General Linevitch and Vice Admiral Birileff will be left unhampered except as to the grand outlines of strategy. Greatly increased activity is obserable in the dispatch of troops to the far east from Poland. Recently picked drafts from various regiments were sent from Warsaw, Lodz and other places.

Member of British Parliament Who Has Investigated Talks of Existing Conditions.

LONDON, May 21 - (Special Captegram to The Boej-Samuel Smith, M. P., the only British member who attended the indias National congress in Bombuy last December, believes various serious problems confront Great Britain on the government of that country. In the course of an interview this week Mr. Smith said:

Air. Smith said:

The mass of our people know almost nothing about the internal state of india. Very few members of randament visit occountry and study earnestly the condition of the people, alost of our party leaders on both sides are colossaly ignorant of India. The secretary for india is usually one who has never seen the country he administers, and his advisors are retired officials, who reflect British views, not those of indians. The result is that great instakes have been made and will be made in the future which might be prevented by full Farilamentary discussion.

There is no desire to get rid of the British government. All educated Indians know well that their country cannot stand alone in the world. They know that the strong arm of Great Beltain secures them from foreign aggression and anarchy at home, but they hold that the time is coming when India should get a place in some degrees corresponding to the colonies—that is, that it should have a voice in the government, its colonial policy and its demostic legislation; that the time has arrived when we should take the ablest of its sons into partnership with ourselyes and construct a government not wholly British, but truly Anglo-Indian. Increase in Value of Stock May Be Reflected in the Assessment.

Independence, Kam., superintendent of all BURLINGTON VALUATION A FACTOR

Opinion Expressed that W. K. Fowler Will Be Elected Principal of Kearney Normal at Meeting of Board Tonight.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 21.-(Special.)-A majority of the members of the State Board of Equalization and Assessment lean towards the view that the 30 per cent increase in the market value of the capital stock of the Union Pacific ought to be reflected in the assessment which is soon to be made, despite the talk of R. J. Clancy as to the immunity of interstate commerce from taxation. The one stumbling block in the way of such an increase is the demand for a similar addition to the assessment of the Burlington, which, according to several embers of the board, was assessed at the right figure last year. One member of the board has stated recently that any increase in the one must be followed by an increase in the other. He suggested that an increase in both might do no harm. One thing is certain, that the board has much more faith in the market value of stocks and bonds and net earnings as criterions of assessable valuation than it has ever had heretofore. First came Attorney General Norris Brown with his championship of those bases in the railway injunction cases. But two years before his former chief, F. N. Prout, in the case brought by the Bee Building company, opposed the theory, in the face of supreme court precedents. Another thing which has done much to bring the board to a willingness to adopt this basis is the attitude of Treasurer Mortensen and Governor Mickey, both of whom, in an endeavor to get at the true basis, devoted much time to studying the question from a business man's point of view. Then there is the influence of the stand taken by Tax Commissioner Highleyman of the Missouri Pacific in saying that the theory must be accepted because it has been enunciated by the authority of the United States supreme court. Finally, there people and that in this manner practical is the consistent and energetic campaign waged in the public press.

Principals Want Larger Salaries. A movement is on foot among the principals in the Lincoln schools to secure church building, belonging to the African higher salaries. The average now is pretty deeper and livelier interest the national Methodist Episcopal congregation here, was close to $100, and last year a $5 increase was given to the board. The principals attention of the world during the great will present statistics at the next meeting including the First National bank building, of the board in an effort to prove that Lincoln offers less than other cities of the same size. Fowler Likely to Win.

The announcement of L. P. Ludden that he stands by W. K. Fowler in the latter's candidacy for the headship of the new western normal school has created the immated tomorrow evening when the State Board of Education will meet for the third time to ballot on a principal. A story is current that C. H. Gregg of Kearney will break away from A. O. Thomas, for whom he veted at the past meetings. While Gregg has been opposed to Fowler, educators who claim to have an insight into the situation say that it was largely due to the coaching of Tom Majors, who has a strong dislike for the former superinged as their real works of art. He hopes by means of the pictures which he is distributing to, in some measure, inspire at more discriminating interest in the higher examples of Japanese art, or what the Japanese carried to be in the direction of the curious and unusual rather than what the Japanese to invoke every legal avenue for the protection of their men and property. That the employers are right in the attitude they have assumed in the controversy was demonstrated by the fact that their skill and genius. But the collections of pictures sent here are intended to do the coaching of Tom Majors, who has a strong dislike for the former supering the distribution to novel and interesting phases of Japanese life. The only personal grievance which Gregg had against Fowler arose from a slight difference as to the equipment needed at the Kearney institution. It is pointed out that it will be to the advantage of Gregg to cut loose from Majors at this stage of the game in order that the western school may have the hearty friendship of the majority of the board. In the event that Fowler withdraws before the balloting Dean Fordyce of Wesleyan may be chosen. While the continual wrangle among the members of the board has been charged up to Majors, majority members of the board profess to believe that the interests of Peru will be properly cared for, since it would not do to injure the school in order to punish him. During the heat of the recent controversy several of the educators concerned had suggested that the eventual result would be the consolidation of the two institutions at Kearney. It is now said that there is plenty of work for both institutions to do at the present time if any considerable fraction of the teachers in the 7,000 districts are to be given the advantages of normal training. It is claimed that within a few years it may be found desirable to establish another such institution in the northern part of the

Trouble Over Sunday Ball. FREMONT, Neb., May 21.-(Special.)-

Yesterday a petition signed by a number of prominent citizens was given to Mayor Wolz, praying that the police be directed to prevent Sunday games. The Fremont team went to Columbus to play today, but should there be a game sheduled for next Sunday there will probably be some trouble.
